

STAGE AND SCREEN FAVORITES WHO ARE TO BE FEATURED NEXT WEEK

KNICKERBOCKER BILL WILL RUN TWO WEEKS.

At the urgent request of hundreds of patrons of the Knickerbocker Theatre, the Triangle Film Company will continue for another week its present bill of feature photo-plays, postponing until the next week the new program that has been arranged.

This week's offering, which has scored such a success that it is to be retained for a second week, includes the Griffith players in "Old Heidelberg," Frank Keenan in "The Coward," Raymond Hitchcock in "Stolen Magic" and Eddie Foy in "A Favorite Fool." The battle scenes in "The Coward" and "Old Heidelberg" especially, have aroused Knickerbocker Theatre audiences to unusual enthusiasm during the last week.

THE LITTLE GYPSY ACADEMY SCREEN PLAY.

Dorothy Bernard, supported by Thurlow Bergen, is the star in "The Little Gypsy," a William Fox photoplay, which will be shown at the Academy of Music for four days, beginning to-morrow. It unfolds a story of stirring romance.

Lady Babbie, the ward of Lord Rintoul, has in her veins a strain of gypsy blood, a heritage from Romany parents, from whose travelling van she was lost. Lord Rintoul discovered the waif and turned her over to his gardener. Struck by her charm, Lord Rintoul decided to bring her up as a "great lady." She returns from boarding school he decided to marry his ward. Babbie delights to wander about the country in the moonlight.

CHILDREN HATE PILLS, CALOMEL AND CASTOR OIL

Give Fruit Laxative when cross, bilious, feverish or constipated.

"California Syrup of Figs" can't harm tender stomach, liver, bowels.

Look back at your childhood days. Remember the "dose" mother insisted on—castor oil, calomel, cathartics. How you hated them, how you fought against taking them!

With our children it's different. Mothers who cling to the old form of physic simply don't realize what they do. The children's revolt is well-founded. Their tender little "insides" are injured by them.

If your child's stomach, liver and bowels need cleansing give only delicious "California Syrup of Figs." Its action is positive, but gentle. Millions of mothers keep this harmless "fruit laxative" handy; they know children love to take it; that it never fails to clean the liver and bowels and sweeten the stomach, and that a teaspoonful given to-day saves a sick child to-morrow.

Actor Killed in Battle. LONDON, Oct. 8.—Harold Chaplin, an American actor, dramatist and stage manager, has been killed in action in France. He was stage manager for Granville Barker's first English production of "Ripplinger in Tauris," which opened at the Lyric Theatre in Mr. Barker's first Shakespearean season.

BURLESQUE AT COLUMBIA TO HAVE TWO FUNNY MEN.

The Columbia Theatre announces an unusually attractive performance of burlesque for next week. The cast is headed by two stars. They are "Sliding" Billy Watson and Ed Lee Wrothe, who have for several seasons starred separately. Mr. Wrothe will be seen in "Higgins at the Race Track" and Mr. Watson will give his well known characterization of Otto in "The Flying Dutchman." They will have the assistance of Owen Martin, Hazel Woodbury, Estelle Collier, Ethel Marconi, Al D'Uonto, Jack Howard and Vernon Brooks. A large chorus of young and pretty girls is announced, and it is said the scenery, costumes and electrical effects are more than ordinarily elaborate and effective. The Columbia management has arranged to have the results of the World's Series baseball games announced by innings from the stage.

FALL FASHION SHOW AT PALACE THEATRE.

The Palace Theatre's Fall Fashion Show, with Emilie Lea, will be the chief feature next week. Ciccolini, the tenor; Edward Abeles, Roy Fairchild and Frank J. Wood in "Self-Defense"; Lubowska, a Russian dancer; Kate Ellinore and Sam Williams in "The Hunter and the Hunter"; and Adier and Arline in "A New Idea" will be on the bill.

The Colonial Theatre will have Harry Fox and Yancey Dolly in songs and dances. Claude Gillingwater in "The Descent of Governor Locke," Craig and Campbell in new readings of the Strand Hippodrome in song readings the Sharrocks in "Behind the Grand Stand," and Moehan's Canines.

Gretta Hoffmann in "Sumurun" will be the headliner at the Alhambra. Mr. and Mrs. Jimmie Barry in "The Ruby," Lyons and Yocco, the singer and the harpist; Marshall Montague, ventriloquist; James O'Brien in "A Comic Opera in Ten Minutes," and Adonis will also appear.

HIP, HIP, HOORAY! BIG HIPPODROME HIT.

Everything is merriment at the rejuvenated Hippodrome under Charlie Dillingham's direction. Mr. Dillingham is delighted to think his ambitions and plans suited the big public to whom the great playhouse is dedicated. H. H. Burnside stands in the first entrance of the stage daily, cheering the vast army of performers as they march on and off before the vast proscenium with a smile; the treasures, attaches and administration heads look cheerful because they are associated with the great success. The exact capacity of the Hippodrome is 5,000, which means that precisely 6,364 delighted persons saw "Hip, Hip, Hooray!" this past week. Souza is there; so are Bella Stoy, Nat Willis, Charles T. Aldrich, Arthur Daagon, Toto, Charlotte and some five hundred others, all seeing the Panama-Pacific Exposition, revealing the Panama Canal or flying at St. Moritz.

To-morrow night Souza's Band gives another concert at the Hippodrome.
